

2:30pm using MSN instant Messenger on July 20th while Marie was in FL

~~Marie~~ Quentin: how are the kids?

marie tuttle: the kids are fine

Quentin: good. Behaving well?

marie tuttle: They have their moments, but all in all they are adjusting well Quentin: good. I got to go. checking email while running errands and now back to packing the house.

marie tuttle: befoer you go

Quentin: Give them a hug and kiss from me.

marie tuttle: I'm taking the eletric out of my name

Quentin: ok

marie tuttle: the last day for it is 31 marie tuttle: you still ahve to pay august rent

Quentin: I'll have everything moved by then Quentin: I also have been trying to save electric for you.

marie tuttle: we are both responsible for that marie tuttle: where are you going to move to Quentin: Not sure yet.

marie tuttle: well you know that we can try again, but not up there marie tuttle: we have to many problems, but you have to remember that it's not one person's fault it's both of our faults Quentin: Sorry, I chased you once and lost most everything. I also can not trust you after this adn I;earnign what you were saying about me.

marie tuttle: that's fine marie tuttle: just remember that if we fill in ohio it will take a year marie tuttle: I want a husband that is a husband and not another child marie tuttle: I have told you for months what I need and you don't seem to listen marie tuttle: the kids need to sold parents

Quentin: And I begged you to go to school for years and you found excuses not to and then blamed me for you not going.

marie tuttle: who was going to watch the kids marie tuttle: you always depend on me to do everything marie tuttle: I have always done what it is in the best interest of the family marie tuttle: remember you said that either I go to school or you do marie tuttle: so I chose you Quentin: You had vabysitters to use in CA, dad said we could live with him and he would watch them while we both started school and several other chances.

marie tuttle: I let your career come first and did everything you make you and the kids happy marie tuttle: no I didn't you pissed everyone off marie tuttle: I have lost alot of friends because of you that would have helped me out marie tuttle: trust me I asked marie tuttle: no one wanted to help because of you Quentin: Not what they are telling me.

marie tuttle: that's what I've been told marie tuttle: why have I been told that you are sleeping when I'm at work marie tuttle: not when I work 3rd marie tuttle: but when I work during the day marie tuttle: you know I have to make excuses for you Quentin: one time i take a nap for a headache. Something you have done yourself plenty of times.

marie tuttle: Terry was going to call children services on us, but because I had to have a long talk with her she didn't marie tuttle: so was a few other people marie tuttle: I need to know where you are going to be at so I can have you served Quentin: I have founght and argued many times with my family to defend you and you have yelled at me saying I didn't do that. you also would complain when I helped around the house and when i didn. No matter what i did you were never happy with it and I got yelled at by you.

marie tuttle: I'm not happy with you marie tuttle: but that' marie tuttle: that's why we needed counseling marie tuttle: you have made me hate myself Quentin: you never were. No matter what I would do you would find a reason to use it to try and hurt me.

marie tuttle: bs marie tuttle: you need to see that I did everything you please you marie tuttle: as soon as I would come home marie tuttle: it was marie do this I'm to sore marie do that marie tuttle: I can't handle it anymore Quentin: I offered counseling and you ran off. Dad offered many times and you refused it then too. You also DID yell at me when i would do dishes, clean up or laundry to help you.
marie tuttle: not always marie tuttle: you don't think marie tuttle: the guy's car you hit Quentin: Usually. I quit wanting to help because I got tired of getting yelled at for doing it. marie tuttle: he is a local drug dealer you really pissed him and his friends off marie tuttle: you haven't tried in years so don't give me that bs marie tuttle: we everyone sees what was going on and you haven' Quentin: He didn't seem pissed when i talked to him and hasn't done anything to me over it. Then again I don't care to know who deals drugs anyways. How do you know who he us?
marie tuttle: haven't given a rats in years marie tuttle: why do you think the windows got broken marie tuttle: trust me marie tuttle: I talked to a few people about this Quentin: Haven? What is haven? marie tuttle: I meant haven marie tuttle: thaven' marie tuttle: haven' Quentin: ?????????? marie tuttle: haven't marie tuttle: \sorry
Quentin: ok
marie tuttle: we've been long over for years and I only stayed because I didn't want to realize it sooner marie tuttle: you don't want us marie tuttle: all we do is get in your way marie tuttle: that's how you make us feel Quentin: I wanted you and the kids but you didn't want or care about me a LOOONG time ago. For years you have been telling people abd things about me while i bragged what a great wife i had.
Quentin: I tried to make a business that would allow me o stay home with you and the kids and allow us BOTH top go to school and you ridiculed it from day one.
marie tuttle: well then why did you treat me like dirt in front of your friend Quentin: Which friend?
marie tuttle: I told you it wasn't going to work out with the business that we should wait marie tuttle: we wasted alot of time and energy on it marie tuttle: and that was all you did was be on the computer marie tuttle: all of your friends marie tuttle: in 29 palms marie tuttle: when we lived on pendleton Quentin: Wait until when? The buesiness was finally starting to make a profit and I have emails for 2 orders that never could be done this month.
marie tuttle: in Fairborn marie tuttle: ever since you join the Marine Corp you change Quentin: I teried to treat you well and you tossed it back in my face when i did. marie tuttle: really then why ever time we had the guys over did you offer me to them marie tuttle: because q you always wanted something it wasn't because you loved me marie tuttle: you need to figure out what love is

She was in FL
when windows broken
How did she know who did it?

marie tuttle: sorry for wanting a good future

Quentin: That is why I was supposed to be in school this time while you supported us. you agreed to that.

marie tuttle: yes I did and I agreed to it because you said that you was going to help around the house

Quentin: I also started the business to try and help and worked to do what i could.

marie tuttle: and I paid for that to Quentin: And when i helped around the house you yelled at me for it.

marie tuttle: you're not grateful at all marie tuttle: I always did for you and the kids marie tuttle: and all I did was get shit on again marie tuttle: lets just file for divorce and end this all marie tuttle: it will go faster here

Quentin: Shit on was me trying to help and getting yelled at for it, Shit on is bragging what a great wife I had and finding out she was lying to people about me saying bad things, shit on is getting lied to for months.

shit on is getting lied to for months.

marie tuttle: I tried to do what you wanted marie tuttle: wait onm you hand and foot marie tuttle: you cant' say you didn't get that Quentin: I also tried to do what you wanted. The difference is i appreciated you doing things and you comp[la]ined when i did what you wanted.

marie tuttle: I would work any where from 80 to 127 hours in two weeks all to come home and work my ass off again

Quentin: I worked hours like that many times while we were together and never complained since it was to support you nad the kids.

marie tuttle: I said I want a job and you always said we couldn't afford for me to go back to work you made me feel that I wasn't good enough to get a job abd when I did find a job that would work me every weekend you told me no marie tuttle: I'm done fighting about this stuff marie tuttle: Justice is right here marie tuttle: she is reading over my shoulder

Quentin: You couldn't be pleased no matter what I did. You don't want to be happy for some reason and I aske dyou to get help for it a few times. I got heklp like you wanted but you always refused help yourself.

marie tuttle: i'm getting help now Quentin: That is fine. I didn't want to argue with you. I just asked about the kids.

marie tuttle: well Justice needs school clothes and I have to get ford some new clothes to Quentin: I have lost everything covering the damage you have done. I don't know when I can send anything right now.

marie tuttle: what damage marie tuttle: I'm going to send you back the hard drives marie tuttle: I'm going to try and come back up in a few weeks Quentin: destroying the computer so I couldn't do business. Bills on it came due that weren't covered so they charged me $30 each time. It when over $500 in debt.

marie tuttle: I'm sorry marie tuttle: remember that it

Quentin: So am I. You did a lot to try and hurt me for no reason.

marie tuttle: it's all my fault and you never did anything wrong marie tuttle: I have alot of reasons

Quentin: I had my problems adn tried to fix rthem. you just never worked on yours.

marie tuttle: but like I told you for months what I needed, but you never did listen marie tuttle: you are my problem....I told you I need time away from you because I was starting to hate you Quentin: I listened adn tried adn you complained at me when i tried and told people bad things about me in return.

Quentin: You almost had your time. i got a call 3 days ago for a very good job. 28 days away and 28 at home. $8000.00 a month.

marie tuttle: I tried telling myself that you love me and that this could work out marie tuttle: yeah right marie tuttle: then take it Quentin: I tried to have a nice family day the 4th and you just wanted to be pissed off. I planned to take everyone to the movies the day I got back too. marie tuttle: prove to me that you can get a good job Quentin: Can't take it now. You killed that chance. marie tuttle: you asked like an asshole marie tuttle: bullshit Quentin: A good job like in Salt Lake that you refused to let me take?

marie tuttle: see all you do is blame me, but you are full of it marie tuttle: you didn't have it yet Quentin: you wouldn't even let me try for it. marie tuttle: Justice says she loves you Quentin: When we went canoeing you refused to help control DFord and others had to take over for you.
Quentin: I love her too. marie tuttle: I told you.....you can get the job, but I wanted to go home for a while to take care of my mother marie tuttle: what could I do to make ford stop crying Quentin: No, you said tyou would NEVER go there adn were going here no matter what.
marie tuttle: It marie tuttle: there was nothing that I could do Quentin: You could have tried to help get his mind off my paddling or atleast backed me up when i tried to.
marie tuttle: you had me up front and you know I hate canoeing Quentin: You were able to help control him since i had to guide the canoe. I also have gone to you at parties and etc even though you know I hate crowds adn parties.
marie tuttle: he started to cry before he got into the canoe Quentin: I've done things i hate for you so a canoe trip every year shouldn't be too much to ask in return. marie tuttle: did I bitch not marie tuttle: no Quentin: And once you werre in you still refused to do anything. marie tuttle: but I was pissed at you for asking like I was your child and not your wife marie tuttle: no I didn't Quentin: no but you refused to even try and enjoy it. marie tuttle: well if you wasn't such an asshole to ford and made me more mad Quentin: OK, tell the kids I love them and give a hug and kiss from me. I have to go pack and clean.

adise over turned and she had nothing to help Ford when he went in the water
